EXTENDED SEASON

The days may be growing shorter but the balmy days of summer continue to provide some fine sailing weather and some of the most beautiful outlooks ever at the shore.

This extended season is most enjoyable because of its rarity. Not many years see the harbor so full of craft at this point.

Selectmen's Meeting

OPPOSE REIMBURSEMENT

Mattapoisett Selectmen have received word that the federal authorities are requesting that Massachusetts reimburse the amount of $2,056, 201.52, which was the cost of resurfacing Route 6 through Mattapoisett and Marion, because the road was restriped as a 4-lane highway. The 2-lane road with breakdown lanes meets federal standards while the present road does not. The Selectmen will write to the federal Senators and Representatives explaining the reason for the change and opposing the reimbursement.

OPPOSE STATE TAKEOVER OF COUNTY BUILDINGS

Selectmen will support Plymouth County Commissioners in opposition to the state takeover of Plymouth County courthouses and buildings through Senate Bill #1028. This bill, designed to have the state pick up the debts of the county governments, will not benefit Plymouth County as most buildings are paid for. In addition, county offices would be taken over by the state making Plymouth County commissioners tenants of the state. Selectmen oppose the entire takeover but will also ask Senator William Q. MacLean, Jr. to make the attempt to have the county offices taken off the list of buildings slated to be taken under control by the state before the bill is acted upon.

COUNTY ASSESSMENT

Mattapoisett has been notified that its share of assessment to be paid to Plymouth County is $92,873.64 in a certified letter from county commissioners. This assessment will be paid from receipts from the cherry sheet.

FREE CASH

Selectmen have received the certified free cash figure from the Department of Revenue for July 1983. Barbara Dakin informed Selectmen that she will seek a new certified figure from the department due to town meeting spending. The certified figure was $341,989. in free cash. There is approximately $150,000 left in free cash for next year following the special town meeting.

VISUAL ART MONEY

Notification was received from the Commissioner of Performing and Visual Arts that Mattapoisett will receive a total of $817. to be used for community arts. The Arts Council and Selectmen are accepting applications for use of the money.

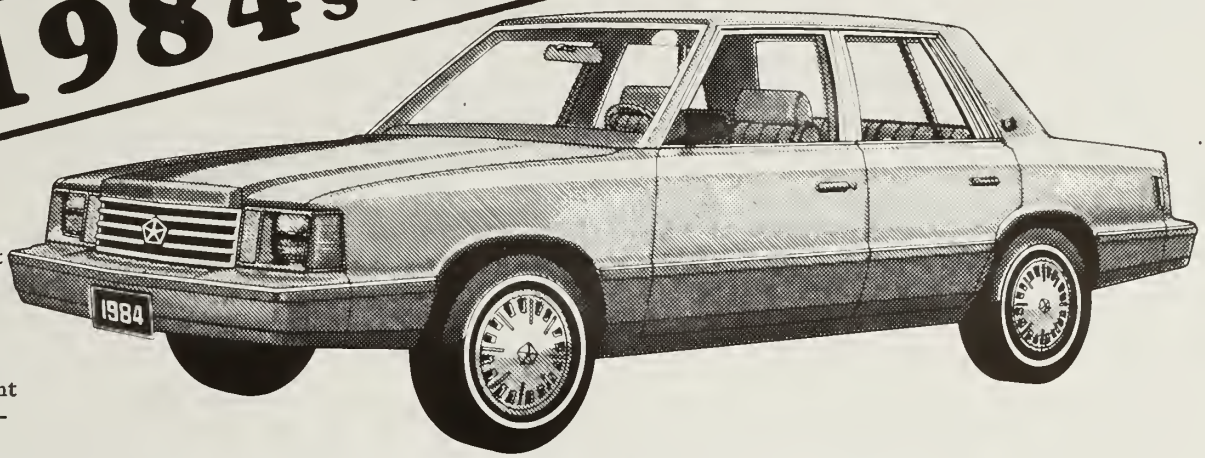
Horizon

Straight ahead value in a contemporary front-wheel drive car! The 1984 Plymouth Horizon has room for five , excellent handling and maneuverability - smart value and smart looks as well.

The 1984s will win you over!

Aries S.E.



A great time to check out the Front-Wheel Drive Aries - and for 1984 the high-tech Aries offers even further refinements, including a new instrument panel with fuel, temperature and voltage gauges.

As always, the 1984 Dodge Aries is built to last, constructed with the vary latest technology. Quality is the key word with Aries. It means you're buying a car that will carry you through a lot of years and a lot of miles.

New Yorker

It's everything you've come to expect in the form of ultimate luxury ... ultimate technology. It's the 1984 Chrysler New Yorker available now at Hiller Co. Ultimate in luxury because New Yorker has not forgotten what you buy a luxury car for. Formally styled exterior with distinctive padded-vinyl Landau-style roof, luxury cloth covers the pillow-style 50/50 front & rear bench seats - or choose real leather. And it's the ultimate in technology: electronic instrumentation, front-wheel drive design.

Reliant S.E.

The Plymouth Reliant ... an American family car for the 80s. The reasons? Front-wheel drive efficiency and performance, smooth ride and hadling ease, clean contemporary styling, and six-passenger room and comfort- all with Reliant's special brand of engineered-in quality and value. Come test drive.

[redacted] Update

Appraisers from the firm of M.M.C., Inc., in the process of visiting homes in Mattapoisett for the Tax Equalization Program, will be in the areas south of Route 6 and starting north of Route 6 doing residential and commercial property for the next few weeks.

Representatives have identification signed by the Board of Assessors; their car make and registration is on file at the Assessors' Office and Police Station.

The Board of Assessors asks that you please allow the individual to inspect the interior and measure the exterior of your property.

The Board of Assessors asks that the residents of the community cooperate fully with the company representatives so that this program can be completed as quickly and efficiently as possible.

If you have any questions please call the Assessors' Office at 758-6708.

The program will be presented by Wayne R. Phillips, Ed.D., a Professor at Bridgewater State College. Dr. Phillips has recently established a program for Elementary Education teachers pursuing a Masters Degree in Computer Science. Also, he will conduct a series of workshops for teachers in grades K-3 at Center School on Curriculum Days in October, November, December and February from 1 to 5 p.m.

You can hear this dynamic, knowledgeable professor this evening, October 5th, at 7:30 p.m. at Old Hammondtown School.

The children in grades K-3 will view filmstrips on fire safety and, under teacher direction, will be involved in activities dealing with fire safety. Parents of children in grades one, two and three are kindly requested to become involved with a small activity book their children will bring home. With parent involvement children can earn a Captain Noburn certificate.

Mattapoisett Historical Society

HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Mattapoisett Historical Society with Mrs. Arthur Tiffany, president, presiding, reviewed a successful year and elected a new slate of officers: President, Miss Mildred Hammond; Vice President, Miss Bette Roberts; Secretary, Mrs. Winfield Jenney; Treasurer, Mrs. Frank Suzan; Board Members, Mr. Kenneth Watjen, Mr. Peter Briggs and Mrs. Philip Bernard.

The OutReach group of the MHS reported a need for interested persons to help when the school children come on field trips to the museum. This activity is greatly enjoyed and appreciated by the children. The classes are divided into small groups that rotate in the museum learning about the old saltworks, the early kitchen, the old-time school, clothing of the past, and weaving and crafts of eras gone by.

When a group is in the clothes area they are allowed to model the clothes and a polaroid picture is taken of the group. There is a need for more clothing of the 1800's -- hats, men's wear, etc. that could be used for this purpose.

Anyone, member of not, who is interested in learning more about this group and what is planned for it, please call Mrs. Kenneth Watjen, 758-4626. Volunteering for this type of activity doesn't take but a couple of hours about three times a year and is most enjoyable.

Following the meeting, Mr. Earl J. Dias spoke on "An Odd Couple" - the friendship between Mr. Henry Huttleston Rogers and Mark Twain.....two men with similar appearance, similar tastes...but Twain was very poor at making and investing his money. Mr. Rogers helped him in this way and freed Mr. Twain to do what he did best...write.

Mr. Rogers also saw that a scholarship was set up for Helen Keller, who impressed him very much with her courage and intellect, for her education and later for an allowance for the rest of her life.

Mr. Rogers' grandparents lived in Mattapoisett on Main Street where Miss Alice Oliver lives now. He was most generous to Mattapoisett by building Center School and giving it to the town and seeing that the students upon graduation were allowed to attend Fairhaven High School...also his gift to Fairhaven. This arrangement continued until Old Rochester Regional High School was opened in 1961.

Mr. Rogers was a shrewd business man but a sentimental and generous man when it came to his home town. He gave the town its high

Bowling League

SEPTEMBER 27th

Once again Johnny Hayes (368) led Sturtevant and Hook to a three point wipeout of the lack-lustre Magnum Force Five. Charlie Savery Jr. smashed out an impressive 160, 417 in a futile attempt to slow down Captain Larry Gracia's pirate team, the Bowling Stones. D. DeJesus (144, 364) aided the Stones in adding three more points to the win column. Herb Snell exploded with a 151 string in the decisive third game to give Herb's TV Shop a two point win over Hartley's Saw Mill (John Cebula 360). Buzzy Ladner's 313 was not enough to stop a three point sweep of Guaranteed Pest Control by Bob Jefferson (380) and the BowlMor quintet.

Girls' Basketball

There are still openings in the Mattapoisett Girls' Basketball League. All girls in grades 4-8 are eligible. The league will play during October and November on Tuesday and Thursday nights from 6 to 8 p.m. Anyone interested who has not signed up should call Barry Haskell at 992-3767 or Ruth Bates at 758-6279.

PSAT Tests

The Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT)/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test will be administered at Old Rochester Regional High School on Saturday, October 22nd. Students must report to the high school cafeteria no later than 8:00 a.m. No one will be admitted after the test has begun. The PSAT will end at approximately noon. Students will not be released until the test is officially over.

The test is usually taken by those students planning a post-secondary education. Juniors must take the PSAT to qualify for a National Merit Scholarship and/or National Achievement Scholarship Program for Outstanding Negro Students. Sophomores are encouraged to take the PSAT for experience.

Scholarship Applications

Scholarship applications from various organizations are now arriving in the Old Rochester Regional High School Guidance Office. During the course of the year, many such scholarship applications will be available. Seniors should pay close attention to the Daily Notices. Local scholarships are an excellent means of supplementing financial aid packages.

Presently there are two applications available. The Century III Leadership Competition is a national competition with preliminary competition held at individual schools and then at the state level. Students are required to write an essay on a "Projection for Innovative Leadership" and also take a current events quiz. The National Society of Professional Engineers is also sponsoring over 25 scholarships for students planning a career in engineering. Both applications are available in the Guidance Office and should be picked up immediately.

60th Reunion, F.H.S.

A quotation from old Omar set the mood for the 60th reunion of the Fairhaven High School Class of 1923.

"Ah, fill the cup
What boots it to repeat
How time is slipping
Underneath our feet
Unborn Tomorrow
and dead Yesterday
Why fret about them
if Today be sweet."

And sweet the day was when 17 members of the class and seven guests gathered at the Mattapoisett Inn to greet old friends and reminisce.

Jessie Peacock offered a prayer followed by a period of silence in memory of members who had died. Proud grandparents exhibited pictures of grandchildren and great grandchildren. Everyone spoke of hobbies that included bridge, bowling, gardening, church and club activities and travel. The young waitress who so capably served a delicious buffet expressed her surprise that a group of "oldsters" could be so peppy.

Helen Bryant introduced Mary Battaini, secretary of the Fairhaven High School Alumni Association. She spoke about the restoration project and exhibited pictures. Members of the class made a generous contribution to the fund.

Letters were read from classmates unable to attend. Good wishes were sent from Maine to Florida. After several pleasant hours together, friends departed, planning, Providence providing, to gather for a 65th reunion.

Harry "The Hat" Road Race

The third annual Harry "The Hat" Road Race, 6.2 miles, from Wareham to Marion, will be held October 30th, starting at 1:00 p.m. (rain or shine).

Prepared Childbirth

The next series of BACE Prepared Childbirth Classes began Sunday afternoon, October 2nd, in Fairhaven for parents expecting babies in December, and will begin November 7th, Monday evenings, in North Dartmouth for parents expecting babies in January. These small informal classes will include films and discussions on nutrition, anatomy, stages of labor, hospital procedures, medication and anesthesia, and the emotional aspects of pregnancy, birth, and parenthood. A certified childbirth educator will teach breathing techniques, relaxation skills and comfort measures to minimize the pain of childbirth.

A Review

by George W. Hayden

"BROTHERS": A Serious New Play

Boston: A new playwright of significant social dimensions has emerged in George Sibbald. Reminiscent of a young Arthur Miller's "All My Sons", "Brothers" is a raw and scalding powerhouse of emotions and reason. Sibbald's language is harsh like the times, his images stirring and his voice relative of decay and mistrust within our family structure.

Carroll O'Connor asserts his strength as a stage actor with a subdued, controlled performance as the patriarch of a Scottish working class family. O'Connor catches an honest, stubborn and humane flare for life in his characterization of the tiring labor leader. As the pot-puffing, effete son expecting a kidney transplant from one of his healthy brothers, Dennis Christopher gives a haunting and sensitive performance capturing sickness and despair. Frank Converse, physically a look-alike for Bill Holden in "Picnic", is both handsome and convincing as this hardened brother who strayed from the clan, marrying a Jewess from Beacon Hill.

Fine support is given by Pat McNamara as the aging alcoholic, would-be school teacher brother Jim; and Gary Klar as the bestial, beer-drinking, over-blown Earl. Mr. O'Connor's direction is nicely paced and literally accurate. However, I spotted actor/director Burgess Meredith, a friend of Mr. O'Connor's in the audience, perhaps with a keen eye to clean up some of the awkward moments in blocking out and use of upstage arm. Set by Thomas A. Walah realistically captures the backyard of a working class lifestyle.

"Brothers" may prove depressing theater to some; nevertheless Sibbald offers a strong voice in the wind, critical of much of the sham in a society existing in controlled conflict. I found this work equally as moving as last season's successful "Foxfire", and in the genre of "5th of July". It will play at the Colonial Theater through October 8. O'Connor fans are in for a theater experience of exciting ensemble acting.

SATURDAY NATURE PROGRAMS

The public is invited to take part in Saturday "WALKS AND TALKS" that deal with a different nature subject each Saturday at 2 p.m. in October at the Children's Museum, as follows:

October 8, "Wild Edibles" - Participants will accompany Museum Instructor Christyna Laubach on a search for trail nibbles, salads and backyard pot herbs. You may be surprised just what's free for the picking.

October 15, "Trees and Leaves in Autumn" - What leaf is this and why is it red? Come learn.....don't be leafed out! Join Don Issacsen for this colorful outing.

October 22, "Seashore Life" - Join Museum Education Director Bob Bailey on a serendipitous walk. You never know what may wash ashore. The excursion will be an entertaining and educational beachcomber's guide to area marine life.

October 29, "Spiders and Their Kin" - A fascinating and often maligned group of Outdoor programs will be preceded by a brief indoor orientation program that utilizes slides, artifacts or live specimens. All ages are welcome, although programs are generally geared for children ten years and older and adults. There is no extra fee for this program other than the regular Museum admissions fee of $1.50 for adults, $1.00 for children ages 3 through 12 and senior citizens. An immediate family, no matter how large, pays only $5.00 to visit. The Children's Museum is located at 276 Gulf Road in South Dartmouth, one mile west of Padanaram Village. For further information, interested persons should call the Museum at 993-3361.

FALL PROGRAMS

The Children's Museum is currently taking registrations for its fall session of courses and workshops for children and adults. Course offerings are:

Children 2-3 years of age, "Toddler Program", ten Tuesdays or Thursdays (October 11-December 13 and October 13-December 22); 9 to 11 a.m.; instructor, Jean Lider, State certified teacher (pre-school) with assistants. The program will intertwine arts, crafts, music, rhythm, games, nature exploration, socialization and free play. The Museum's unique facilities will help toddlers explore, discover and create together. Each session is limited to 10 children. A registration and get acquainted session for the toddler program will be held Thursday, October 6th, at 10 a.m. at the Museum.

Children 8-10 years of age, "Puppetry", six Saturdays (October 22-November 26), 10-11:30 a.m.; all materials will be provided; instructor, Christyna Laubach, Children's Museum. Children will design and construct

CAREER SERIES'

Once each month the Museum will focus on a different type of employment, presenting someone in that line of work to speak with children ages 8-12.

For October, the career topic is Aircraft Piloting. The program will be conducted on Saturday, October 8th, at 2:30 p.m. A special visit to New Bedford Airport will enable children to speak with a commercial pilot and see airplanes and a helicopter. Enrollment will be limited to 25 children.

All courses, workshops and career programs require preregistration and registrations cannot be accepted without fees. For this reason no phone reservations can be accepted. Persons interested in the programs should contact the Museum at 993-3361 to request a registration form. Fees are charged for all courses, workshops and career programs.

spectators cheered and applauded their favorite Annie. While Ronald McDonald entertained, the judges' votes were tallied in order to announce the winner of the Annie Look-Alike Contest held by the Zeiterion Theatre and the New Bedford Downtown Business Association.

The morning began with Ronald McDonald entertaining the crowd, who then introduced Dan Kirsch, Managing Director of the Zeiterion Theatre. Dan introduced the four judges: Councillor Dorothy Eve Kearney, Ronald McDonald, Maura Saltmarsh from Saltmarsh's; and the Peanut Man from the Peanut Store. Twenty-nine contestants were then individually introduced, most from the Greater New Bedford area, and one entry from Bristol, Rhode Island. The girls, ages 5-12, wore Annie dresses, Annie lockets, had Annie dolls, and some even carried Sandy with them.

Winning first place was Jennifer Rezendes, ages 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rezendes of Westport. Jennifer won a $50.00 bond from the Bank of Boston, five tickets to see Annie at the Zeiterion Theatre, an Annie T-Shirt from Elaine's T-Shirts, and a Scoops Ice Cream Party for ten people.

Second place went to Janet Beaulieu, age 10, of New Bedford; and third place went to Jennifer Smagacz, age 10, of Marion. Both girls received three tickets to see Annie at the Zeiterion; an Annie T-Shirt from Elaine's T-Shirts; and a dollhouse from Housewares, Inc. and a wrist watch from the Jewelry Company Store, respective-

Parkwood Auction

The Parkwood Hospital Auxiliary's October Auctionfest, originally set for Saturday, October 8th, has been rescheduled for Saturday, October 15th, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. The format has also been changed to a more informal yard sale, allowing for a greater variety of items for sale.

Home baked pastries and candies, clothing, furniture, crystal, books, bicycles, and much, much more will be on sale on the lawn in front of the hospital, 4499 Acushnet Avenue in New Bedford's north end.

The Parkwood Hospital Auxiliary is a volunteer and service organization offering a wide range of programs for the benefit of the hospital. For more information about the Auxiliary and the yard sale, contact Mrs. Pauline Bastille at Parkwood Hospital, 995-4400.

Tobey Softball

The Tobey Hospital Softball Team, coached by Tom Spiro, avenged last year's loss against the Wareham Police Department by defeating them 11-6 in a game Wednesday night, September 21st, under the lights in Buzzards Bay. The Lloyd Center

MINI-COURSE OFFERED

How did coastal Native American groups in southeastern Massachusetts use the natural environment? What are their concerns today? The Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies, 430 Potomska Road, South Dartmouth will offer a mini-course, "Native Americans of the Coastal Region", on 3 consecutive Wednesday evenings, November 2, 9 and 16 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. and 2 Saturdays, November 5 and 12, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Call the Center at 990-0505 for further information on registration and course fees.

The course instructors, Betsy Sheehan, School Program Specialist at the Lloyd Center, and Milton Travers, author and lecturer on the Wampanoag Native American group, will lead the lectures, informal discussions, and field trips.

Helen Attaquin, Ph.D., author, former researcher and educator of Wampanoag culture at Plimoth Plantation, will share her knowledge of Native American culture with course participants through lecture and films.

This mini-course examines the history and culture of coastal Native American groups in southeastern Massachusetts, focusing on their use of the natural environment. It is offered as part of the educational service of the Lloyd Center to the citizens of southeastern Massachusetts. Through lectures, field trips, hands-on activities, and informal discussion, we will study the life-styles of local groups at different times of the year, and their use of surrounding natural resources. Using archaeology as an inquiring tool, we will dig along with amateur and professional archaeologists. We will also tour the area's former sites of Native American habitation.

WALK THROUGH SAND DUNES

The Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies will offer a guided walk through the sand dunes at Barney's Joy in South Dartmouth on Sunday, October 9th, at 1:30 p.m. All interested walkers should meet at the Lloyd Center, 430 Potomska Road, South Dartmouth to carpool to the site.

The sandy beach at Barney's Joy, like all similar beaches along the Atlantic shoreline, undergoes seasonal changes. During the quieter days of summer when wind and waves are comparatively gentle, the beach profile broadens into a gradually-sloping terrace as sand accumulates. With the coming of winter's harsh storms of strong winds and forceful breakers, this sandy build-up is quickly washed away, giving the beach a steep, eroded profile. On Sunday's walk we will discuss and observe these forces which are constantly changing the beach and dunes. We will also examine evidence of plant and animal life and consider their adaptions to this harsh shoreline environment. Special permission has been granted to the Center for use of Barney's Joy, a preserved section of coastline representative of barrier beach formations.

Weekly walks at the Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies are open to the public and are free of charge.

The Lloyd Center grounds and walking trails are open to the public 365 days a year, from dawn to dusk. The Center's 55 acres border the Slocum River estuary and present a panoramic view of the river and Buzzards Bay beyond.

SENIOR CITIZEN PROGRAMS

The Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies, 430 Potomska Road, South Dartmouth, recently expanded its programs to include the Senior Citizen community. Several groups of local nursing home residents have participated in programs on Coastal and Estuarine Studies at the Lloyd Center. Transportation to and from the Lloyd Center is provided by TWIN SERVICES (Team Work for Inter-Nursing Home Services, Inc.), a support agency for nursing home residents located in South Dartmouth. Each visit includes a slide presentation on the

CALLIGRAPHY EXHIBIT

Penworks by Andrea Coderre Kennedy will be displayed in the YWCA lobby during October. Ms. Kenney's calligraphic work includes poetry, folk songs, illustrated calligraphy and expressive pieces.

Ms. Kenney, a 1979 graduate of SMU, studied calligraphy under Professor Howard Glaser. She, with Professor Glaser, is co-founder of Southeastern Massachusetts Letterworks.

She has participated in Letter Arts Newport Week this past summer and has exhibited at Millicent Library in Fairhaven.

Ms. Kenney currently teaches calligraphy at the YWCA, Bristol Community College and each Spring at SMU's Project Excel.

The lobby is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday.

COOPERATIVE ARTCARE

Young mothers with children aged 6 months - 3 years are invited to participate in YWCA Cooperative Artcare. Creative play and learning activities in an expanded family atmosphere are emphasized in the program held every Friday from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

The cost of supplies and program planning is shared. The mother is required to be a YWCA member.

Cute, isn't it? That's new siding you're looking at, and a new deck. Plus the roof. Inside this 2 bedroom home (there's room for another bedroom upstairs, if you want to finish it off) are new wiring, new carpets, new bath, and a good heating system. What you can't see in the photo is the hedged and stone-walled yard with all the flower beds. Priced at $69,500., we think it will go fast. We have a key for it, so just give us a call for a showing.

Beginning October 1, 1983, Tobey Hospital will have the only Emergency Department in the area which is completely staffed by attending physicians who are residency trained in Emergency Medicine. Their expertise in the management of Surgical, Traumatic, Medical, and Pediatric Emergencies will greatly enhance the quality of care of Tobey Hospital.

They will view the Emergency Department at Tobey Hospital as the converging point for the interests of the community at large, the Medical Community, the EMS System, and the hospital, and they expect to serve all four. They will provide rapid, convenient, and courteous Medical care with concern for the patient as an individual.

Another area of vital interest is EMS development. They recognized there has been tremendous growth and increased sophistication of pre-hospital EMS Systems in the past decade. Their goal will be to have the Emergency Department at Tobey Hospital assist in the continued improvement of pre-hospital care, while fulfilling its duty to adequately handle the increased numbers of severely ill and injured patients which will consequently arrive at the hospital.

They will also take an active part in public education programs, such as the nature and proper use of EMS Systems, Accident Prevention and home care, Basic and Advanced Cardiac Life Support courses, and appropriate use of the Emergency Department.

"Members of the Medical, Professional and Support Staffs are eagerly awaiting the arrival of the group on October 1, 1982", stated John A. Kelenosy, Assistant Administrator.

join the residents of the 1627 Pilgrim Village at Plimoth Plantation for the Harvest Home Celebration October 8, 9 and 10.

Harvest Home is the traditional celebration marking the end of a successful growing season. It features feasting, games and military displays. It is the forerunner of the modern Thanksgiving holiday.

Isaack deRasieres, the secretary of the Dutch colony, and his entourage will arrive at the Pilgrim Village on Saturday morning, October 8. Cannons and trumpets will sound the Dutch arrival and Governor William Bradford will formally greet them. Speeches and gifts will be exchanged.

Plimoth Plantation, which re-creates the events of the year 1627 in the Plimoth Colony, is re-enacting the arrival of Isaack deRasieres there for the second time. This will be a major production for the outdoor living history museum.

DeRasieres is visiting the English Colony to discuss possible trade agreements and military alliance.

The Pilgrims will show the Dutch outstanding English hospitality with a bountiful feast, dancing, fiddling and games of pillow bashing, running the quintain, nine pins and tug-o-war. The military displays and a contest in swordsmanship will occur each afternoon. Visitors to the Plantation for the festival may join in the games as well.

The Harvest feast will include two courses. First course includes roast goose with oat pudding, roast duck, sallet, venison pasties, plum tart and Jerusalem artichokes. Second course includes chicken, stewed pumpkins, roast pork with mustard sauce, alloes of mutton, corncakes, stewed rabbit, custard and furmenty. All cooking will take place in the Pilgrim Village. Some of the villagers will eat at 12:30 p.m.; the rest at 2 p.m.

DeRasieres and his men will tour the Pilgrim Village and visitors can listen to discussions between deRasieres and Bradford concerning trade and military alliance. Bradford will announce the result of the negotiations to the English colonists on Monday afternoon, the 10th.

A contest in swordsmanship between the English and Dutch will take place each afternoon at 3 p.m.

DeRasieres will leave Monday afternoon with a cannon volley marking the end of the historic visit.

In addition to authentic English clothing of the period, visitors will see the upper class Dutch richly adorned in black.

Coming to Zeiterion:

The world renowned Bamberg Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Witold Rowicki, will perform at the Zeiterion Theatre on Monday, October 10, at 8:00 p.m. This is the first Symphony Orchestra ever to play the Zeiterion. Their concert will include Mozart's Symphony No. 35 in D Major, K. 385, "Haffner"; Strauss' Till Eulenspiegel, Op. 28; and Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 4 in f minor, Op. 36.

One of the great touring orchestras of the world, the Bamberg Symphony was founded in 1946. Its first prominent guest conductor, Hans Knappertsbusch, prophesied as early as 1948 that this orchestra would make its way in cities as far afield as Vienna, London, Mexico City, Cairo, Tokyo and New York. Indeed, the orchestra has since performed in all of these cities, as well as in more than 80 other music capitals of the world. In addition to its extensive international touring schedule it performs throughout Germany and is widely recognized for its recordings and radio broadcasts.

The Bamberg Symphony grew out of the great German Orchestra of Prague. In 1945 the members of that orchestra, including their Music Director, Joseph Keilberth, were expelled from Czechoslovakia. Many of the musicians fled to the Franconian area of Germany where they regrouped and formed what is known today as the Bamberg Symphony. In 1950 a long and productive association with Bavarian Radio began, which continues today.

The Bamberg Symphony has been associated with many of the greatest names in conducting and composition, including Rudolf Kempe, Sir George Solti, Antal Dorati, Erich Leinsdorf, Klaus Tennstedt, Paul Hindemith, and Aram Khachaturian. Their distinguished Conductor Laureate, Eugen Jochum, has worked with the orchestra since 1968.

Recently New Bedford Standard-Times critic Earl Dias wrote about the "excellent acoustics at the handsomely refurbished performing center. Every note - whether played by full orchestra (SEM-Pops) or in instrumental solo renditions - came forth clearly and resonantly."

The 100 member Bamberg Symphony Orchestra will perform at the Zeiterion Theatre on Monday, October 10th, at 8:00 p.m. For tickets and information call the Zeiterion Theatre Box Office at 994-2900.

Attention, Traditional Boat Buffs!

OWN A PADANARAM-BUILT PEAPOD

and experience the "classic charm" of the 18th Century.

Although her design is more than 200 years old, the Peapod still ranks as one of the finest small boats available for sailing, recreational rowing, and as a yacht tender. Completely hand-laid in fiberglass and liberally trimmed in mahogany and brass, she features a centerboard and kickup rudder allowing easy exploration of our coastal marshlands. She can be car-topped, trailered, or hauled in the back of your pickup. Her fine lines and seaworthy characteristics make her the perfect example of traditional New England craftsmanship.

Chamber Music in Historic Setting

WHALE invites you to enjoy Chamber Music at the Rotch-Jones-Duff House and Garden Museum, 396 County Street, New Bedford.

On Sunday, October 16th, at 3:30 p.m. classical guitarist Steven Goodman will perform with flute accompaniment. Steve is a graduate of the Berklee School of Music. He performs at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts and in Little Compton, Rhode Island.

On Sunday, November 13th, at 3:30 p.m. Baroque music will be performed by 3 members of the New England Chamber Players. Violinist Ann Davis, soloist with the New Bedford Symphony, and Ruth Trexler, featured cellist of the Fall River Symphony, are graduates of the New England Conservatory of Music. Harpsichordist Glenn Guittari is the Minister of Music at St. Mary's Cathedral in Fall River as well as a harpsichord technician and builder. This is a return engagement for Glenn.

Admission charge for each program is WHALE members, $2.50; non-members $3.00. Parking is available in the Swain School of Design lot just across the street.

For further information call the WHALE office at 997-1776.

Today, it seems like most every famous designer has put his name on a shirt.

The problem is that great designers aren't often great shirtmakers.

And one by one the shirtmakers who became famous for the quality of their shirts disappeared. Except for one.

It's easy to see the difference in Sero quality. And it's easy to understand the reason for the difference. Today, Sero makes their shirts the same way they made them 35 years ago. Carefully and painstakingly. And they still make them where they can keep an eye on quality.
